At Jeff Hunter's home somewhere in Hollywood Hills. 1965.

Actor Jeffrey Hunter reads a script for a potential T.V. pilot. It's about a show called Star Trek, a unique name for a show.

Hunter thought to himself.

Right now he just got done doing a western series Temple Houston it got canceled and Hunter needs to go back to work..

Background on Star Trek.

Gene Roddenberry before creating Star Trek. Roddenberry wrote Have Gun Will Travel. The lieutenant for television.

Roddenberry told NBC producers

Jeff Hunter sat on his couch, in his Los Angeles apartment. Leonard Nimby was the only actor besides himself to go from the pilot to series. Majel was given a new role by Gene Roddenberry. George Takei. Nichelle Nichols.

DeForest Kelly. Laurel Goodwin were all pleasant to work with. But Hunter was a movie star that worked with John Wayne in the Searchers. Played Jesus in Kings of the Kings. Not to mention playing the lead in Sergeant Rutledge, what the hell was he doing playing a star ship captain named Christopher Pike week after week? Only time could give Hunter the answer to that question.

Laurel Goodwin. Peter Duryea on as cast member.

The star trek series was to be on NBC . since CBS turned down Star Trek they felt Lost in space was enough science fiction.

Star Trek was a wagon train to the stars. his mistress and soon to be wife Majel Barrett was going to play number one the Enterprise first officer.in first draft it was going to be the u.s.s. Endeavor. in final draft it would later change to u.s.s. Enterprise.

That character was written out.Barret would play nurse chapel.

Also.in first draft the Enterprise skipper was captain Robert April. later changed to captain Christopher Pike.

Lloyd Bridges was invited to play captain Pike in the pilot. the cage.

Audiences were thrilled to Lloyd in the adventure of sea hunt but bridges were not interested.

Jeffrey Hunter was asked.and he reluctantly Accepted.

In this period in time movie actors did not do television and Jeff hunter considered himself a movie actor..

Hunter wasn't sure about doing star trek but watched President Kennedy talking about space exploration in 1964.figoured space t.v. shows and movies would become massily popular.

what started as a pilot known as the cage ended up with a very popular movie franchise.

the actors going along for the ride weren't always sure what would happen next.
